

Laura V. Stanley, CGA is Arkansas Jeweler of the Year

For Immediate Release
August 27, 2010

Laura V. Stanley is the winner of Retailer of the Year for 2010. Arkansas Jewelers Association chooses one retailer and one traveling salesperson each year to be honored. Robert G. Carroll of Jewelers Mutual Insurance was awarded Traveler of the Year.

“I’m so excited to win this award going into our 75th anniversary,” said Ms. Stanley. “Being Jeweler of the Year is a thrill, and I share the honor with everyone at Stanley’s. We are a team!”

She is a 3rd generation jeweler who just completed her Masters in Business Administration at Webster University; a Graduate Gemologist, Gemological Institute of America; and a Certified Gemologist Appraiser, American Gem Society.

Ms. Stanley serves on the American Gem Society International Board of Directors, and chairs the International Guilds Committee; she is on the Jewelers Vigilance Committee Executive Committee; she is on the Better Business Bureau of Arkansas board; is president of Pulaski County Court Appointed Special Advocates and Treasurer of the Heights Neighborhood Association in Little Rock.

Mr. Loyd Stanley, her father, won the award in 1985. Ms. Caroline Stanley, her sister, won the award in 1992.
